III. SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS:

Mr. Paul Hamman of Cenergistic congratulated the district on the success of its energy program. Plainville Community Schools achieved $1,066,690 in cost savings in 41 months, since forming an alliance with Cenergistic. He then presented the district with the Cenergistic's Energy Excellence Award. In conjunction, the five school buildings earned Energy Star certification. In order to achieve this honor, the buildings must rate in the top 25 percent nationwide for energy efficiency. In addition, the district was awarded the U.S. Government's Energy Star Award. Mr. Hamman stated that this is quite a feat for such a small district and credits Lynn Davis, Energy Specialist, who tracks energy consumption, Steve Busel, Director of Facilities and Mike Dixon, the district's HVAC specialist, for the time and effort they put into each of their areas of expertise.

Dr. Kitching thanked Mr. Hamman and also praised Mrs. Davis, Mr. Busel and Mr. Dixon, stating that because these individuals work collaboratively together, it allows the district to be committed to reinvesting. Mrs. Davis specifically thanked Mr. Dixon for his help over the last few years. Dr. Kitching stated that these awards are also a testament to Mr. Busel's hard work behind the scenes and is doing a phenomenal job in sustaining each of the five buildings. Dr. Kitching thanked Mr. Busel, Mrs. Davis and Mr. Dixon.

V. CITIZEN COMMENTS

A. RESPONSE TO CITIZEN COMMENTS

No responses

VI. COUNCIL LIAISON

Mrs. Pugliese could not attend this evening's meeting. Mrs. Saunders reported the following on her behalf:

♦The 2016 road paving schedule for the Town is set. Please check the Town's website for scheduled work in your area.

- ◆ The Town recently received a state grant for use to upgrade its two parks, both Paderewski and Norton Park.

VII. SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT

A. Hour of Code—Presentation cancelled

B. Technology Update

Dr. Kitching then introduced Director of IT, Kevin Ross. Mr. Ross gave his yearly update on the Technology Department. Mr. Ross’ Powerpoint is attached to these minutes. Subject areas include: What has been accomplished in the five schools and at the Town level; the number of tickets which have been answered (2,756 in one year); the upgrade of Chromebooks; the District’s 2016-17 Replacement Plan; Award of the state’s Technology grant; and district information which can be found on Twitter.

Mr. Ross specifically thanked members of his staff:

Mark Alfano, Data Integration Specialist
Karel Zettergren, Data Integration Assistant
Dan Demur, Network Manager
John Dera, Technician
Nick Midolo, Technician
Doug Miller, Technician
Joe Cimedon, Technician

Mr. Ross stated that he could not do what he needs to do without these seven individuals. He also thanked Dr. Kitching for placing his faith and trust in him over the last five years and also thanked the Board for their support. Dr. Kitching thanked Mr. Ross and his team for the work that they do throughout the district.

C. State of the Middle School of Plainville

Dr. Kitching then introduced Matt Guarino, MSP Principal, who gave a brief video of various students sharing their experiences at the Middle School. He asked them such questions as:

MSP Inspires: Who and what inspires them?
MSP Cares: Do students feel at home/safe at the Middle School?
MSP Prepares: How does the Middle School prepare students for the future?
MSP Participates: What classes/programs are offered?
MSP Grows: Their thoughts on the Growth Mindset Program
MSP Technology: Their thoughts on Chromebooks/Google Drive
Changes: Would they change anything about the Middle School?

Mr. Guarino thanked music teacher Todd Helming for his assistance in making the video. Dr. Kitching thanked and praised Mr. Guarino, Aimee Roberts, Assistant Principal and Tom Laudadio, Dean of Students for their efforts in improving the middle school over the last eight years.

D. 2016-17 School Calendar (Informational Item)

Dr. Kitching reviewed the approved 2016-17 school calendar. As a means of organizing the calendar for parents, he has highlighted Early Dismissal Days, i.e., Open Houses, Parent/Teacher Conferences and Professional Days. The early dismissal days have all been scheduled for Wednesdays with the exception of exam days in an effort provide a better structure for parents.

Dr. Kitching concluded his report stating that due to the inclement weather, schools were closed on Friday and Monday. He also stated that on Friday, he had submitted his letter of resignation as Superintendent of Schools. (Dr. Kitching will be the new Executive Director of Education Connection, one of Connecticut's Regional Education Service Centers.) He stated that this was a very difficult decision to make as he has had a wonderful 5 year tenure in Plainville, however, this position is a unique leadership opportunity that he cannot pass up. He stated that he has made many friends here in Plainville and thanked the Board for their trust, confidence and support. His last day will be April 15th.

Although they did not win, a good time was had by all. Mrs. Saunders accepted Dr. Kitching's letter of resignation with regret. She said that even though this is an opportunity that he cannot pass up, he will be missed. She wished him well.

IX. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

X. NEW BUSINESS

A) Board Open Forum

Crystal St. Lawrence stated that she attended Linden's Chorus and Jazz Band concert on February 4th. She stated that the concert was amazing and was very impressed with the talent of the students. She is also very proud of her daughter who plays the French horn in the band.

Foster White stated that he had the privilege of attending a Wolf Pack game with his sons on January 31 at the XL Center. He said there was a phenomenal performance sung by the Toffolon Chorus at the game. He credits the talented music teachers for choosing such artistic music.

Cheryl Provost congratulated Dr. Kitching on his new position and wished him well. She also congratulated Lynn Davis, Steve Busel and Mike Dixon for their hard work over the last few years which allowed the Board to reallocate over $1,000,000 to programs for students. She stated that the Cenergistic energy program is amazing.

Becky Tyrrell stated that she was sad to see the retirement resignations for Dr. Van Wagenen and Ms. Walsh on the agenda. She stated that these two ladies are very hard working and are both a great asset to the district. She congratulated them on their retirements and wished them well. She stated that she too hates to see Dr. Kitching leave as he has made a huge impact on the district and the community and will be sorely missed.
