Robert Mercer
Second: Reade Clemens

All in Favor 4 to 0

Minutes approved

B. Financial Report

No Financial Report.

IV. Other Business

A. Website Advertising – it is a topic to be discussed once website is complete.

Motion to table Website Advertising until the website is done by: R. Piotrowski
Second: R. Mercer

All in Favor 4 to 0

Motion Passes

B. Wings and Wheels – post event discussion –the event was rained out unfortunately. Joseph reported that he did have the opportunity to speak with people that were at the event before it started raining.

- C. Interstate Aviation Report – Lynn went over the report.
- D. LEA Report
 - 1. Revised Capital Improvement Plan – Ed handed out the new plan. It has significant changes. The major change is that the apron pavement work must be paid for by the town with the discretionary money received yearly.
 - 2. Obstruction Identification and Environmental Asset Study
Obstruction identification is complete. Over the next few weeks a report will be submitted to Town, FAA and CAA.
 - 3. Obstruction Lights – working with a representative from Eversource and they are coordinating with the FAA. Ed to update progress at the next meeting.
 - 4. Other Items – no items.

V. Public Comments

- 1. Joseph Corlis – happy with the way things are going. He agrees that discretionary funds should be used for necessary repairs so that the money is not reabsorbed by the FAA.

VI. Adjournment

Motion to adjourn by: Richard Piotrowski
Seconded by: Reade Clemens
