Learn more about the Civilian Conservation Corps, a program that provided work for thousands of young men during the Great Depression of the 1930's including many here in Connecticut.

PLAINVILLE YOUTH SERVICES

- The Plainville Coalition for Positive Youth Development has once again joined cities and towns around the country by sponsoring a campaign to prevent underage drinking. This effort highlights the fact that it is illegal to allow consumption of alcohol by anyone under age 21, even in private homes. This is known as the "social host" law. During the upcoming prom, graduation and summer party season, the Coalition will be displaying lawn signs and other materials that highlight this message, as part of the underage drinking prevention campaign around town. The Coalition is looking for PHS parents and other residents to display the lawn signs in support of the underage drinking campaign between May 15 - July 15. If you are interested in displaying a lawn sign, please contact Coalition Co-chairs Roberta Brown (860) 793-0221 ext. 261, (brownr@plainvilleschools.org) or Lynn Davis (860) 793-3220 ext 6111 (davisl@plainvilleschools.org).
