

Happenings for The Town of Plainville 4-17-2017

PLAINVILLE COALITION FOR POSITIVE YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

- The Plainville Coalition for Positive Youth Development presents Parenting in the Digital Age, everything you need to know about keeping kids safe through the appropriate use of YouTube, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat & more. This free workshop for Plainville parents presented by Rich McKeon of Sophisticated Digital Solutions will be held Wednesday, May 7, 2017 from 6:15pm to 8:00pm at Linden Street Elementary School. To register for the program, please contact Tina Gryguc at the Plainville Board of Education, (860) 793-3210, ext. 206 no later than Monday, May 1, 2017. Babysitting will be provided, light refreshments will be served, and registration is preferred, but walk ins are welcome.

PLAINVILLE SENIOR CENTER

- QUESTIONS FOR THE SOCIAL WORKER, MONDAY, April 24, 12:30 P.M.: Do you have questions about Medicare, Medicaid, Medicare Part D, Medicare Savings Program, Caregiving, Homecare or Housing Options? Just stop by Stephanie's office to have an individual chat with her. Please note: this program is for Plainville residents 60 and over only. No pre-registration necessary. No question is too small!
- UPDATES ON LOW VISION, MONDAY, APRIL 24, 10:00 A.M.: Learn the differences between having low vision and being legally blind. Discussion will also include information about eye diseases such as glaucoma, diabetic retinopathy, macular degeneration and cataracts. Presented by Michele Tarantino, MPH, OTR, Certified Low Vision Therapist, Care Transition Manager Brookdale. Michele will also share information about community resources that can assist individuals living with low vision. Program is free. Call the Senior Center to register.
- NCAAA FOCUS GROUP, MONDAY, APRIL 24, 12:30 P.M. TO 4:00 P.M.: The North Central Area Agency on Aging (NCAAA) will be holding a Focus Group at the Senior Center. NCAAA is a private non-profit agency that plans and funds programs and services for seniors, including some services and programs at the Plainville Senior Center, such as Circle Group, foot care scholarships, Brighter Focus, Grandparents Raising Grandchildren support group and annual conference and more. They're interested in hearing from you about what you see as gaps in services for those over age 60 either in Plainville or surrounding towns and/or ideas to make your life easier. We'd love to see you! Light lunch will be served. Please call the Senior Center to register.

PLAINVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Happenings for The Town of Plainville 4-17-2017

- On Tuesday April 18 celebrate National Poetry Month with a poetry reading & open mic night. Arrive early to sign up for open mic portion of the evening. Refreshments will be provided by the Friends of the Plainville Public Library.
- On Tuesday April 25th at 6:30PM the library sponsors an Introductory Poetry Writing Workshop with a focus on joyful abundance Attendees will have the opportunity to write and receive feedback on their work or one can sit, listen and enjoy. Registration required.
- On April 20th at 6:30PM join us for a relaxing evening of adult coloring with fine markers and sharp colored pencils.
- On Earth Day, Saturday April 22, come to the library to learn about a new urban farming trend called "ECO VERTICAL EVOLUTION" abbreviated as 'EVE.' This is a system that blends traditional farming with hydroponic, aquaponics, aeroponics, and dutch bucket growing systems.
- Saturday April 29th at 1:30PM come for the Friends Movie Matinee featuring the film Manchester by the Sea.
- Also Saturday April 29th at 2:30PM the library is hoisting a program about Prevention of Heart Disease. Dr. Jorge Cruz and Gloria Masse, an expert in Chinese Medicine, will speak discuss hidden risk factors and alternative ways to prevent cardiac issues, and herbs and Chinese medicines that help with cardiac issues. Light Refreshments offered, and registration is requested. Call 860-793-1446.
- May 7, 2017 the Plainville Wind Ensemble will be hosting their:
"Spring Concert"
2:00pm
Plainville High School Auditorium
47 Robert Holcomb Way, Plainville, CT
Benefits raised will go to support the Plainville Animal Control Department

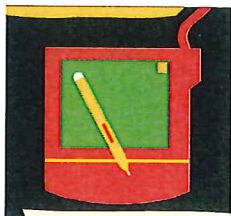

www.pcpdyd.org

The Plainville Coalition for Positive Youth Development
Presents..

“Parenting in the Digital Age”

Everything YOU need to know about keeping kids safe through the appropriate use of :

- You-Tube
- Twitter
- Instagram
- Snapchat & more...

Did You Know?

Students as young as 8 - 9 years old are regularly accessing social media channels via a variety of electronic devices including cell phones, i-pods, e-readers, tablets and more. Get the facts to ensure your child is a good “digital citizen.”

Join us for:

A FREE workshop for Plainville parents presented by:
Rich McKeon / Sophisticated Digital Solutions
The workshop is for parents of children of all ages

Parents are encouraged to bring their child's personal mobile devices including cell phones, tablets, etc., for “hands on” learning about parental controls

DATE: Wednesday, May 3, 2017

TIME: 6:15PM—6:25PM: Check in
6:30PM—8:00PM: Program

PLACE: Linden St. School, 69 Linden St.

- Babysitting will be provided
- Light refreshments will be served
- Registration preferred, but walk-ins are welcome

RSVP: To register for the program, please contact Tina Gryguc at the Plainville Board of Education, (860) 793-3210, ext. 206 or via email at: gryguc@plainvilleschools.org, no later than Monday, May 1, 2017.

Please provide the names of the adults who will be attending the program, as well as the names / ages of children who will need childcare.

COFFEE, CANNOLI & CONVERSATION WITH
PLAINVILLE COMMUNITY SCHOOLS'
SUPERINTENDENT

DR. MAUREEN BRUMMETT

TO DISCUSS THE UPCOMING
WHEELER RENOVATION PROJECT

With Special Guest, Mr. Andrew
Batchelder, Wheeler School Principal

Monday, April 24th, 11:00 AM @ the

Plainville Senior Center

MANGIA!

